

Contents

FROM THE EDITORIAL TEAM

- Agnieszka Ogonowska
A Word from the Editor-in-Chief 3
- Jakub Kosek, Miroslav Vrzal
Introduction from the Editors 4

DISCOURSES AND STUDIES

- Miroslav Vrzal
Czech Metal Studies: 5 Years of the Study of Metal (and Religion) 6
- János Fejes
The Variety of Similarity: Hungarian High Literature, History, and Folklore in the Lyrics of Dalriada 23
- Jakub Kosek
“Acidofilia”: The Work of the Acid Drinkers
in the Discursive Landscape of Metal Music Culture 39
- Vojtěch Volák
Heaviness: A Key Concept of Metal Music Through the Lens of Deleuzian Philosophy 53
- Andrzej Juszczyk
The Global and Local Dimension of Metal Music 63
- Michal Puchovský
Czech Pagan Metal: A Short Introduction to Major Local Trends 72
- Karolina Karbownik
Counter...what? Metal Music and Its Culture in the 21st Century 91
- Gabriela Stašová, Miroslav Vrzal, Jana Nenadalová
A Man Behind Everything? Motivational Sources of Metal Listening Among Female Audiences 101
- Ondřej Krajtl, Michal Puchovský
Eso-kitsch in Czech Folk Metal: A Case Study of the Band Odraedir 122

REVIEWS, REPORTS, INTERVIEWS

- Jana Nenadalová, Gabriela Stašová
Report on the Metal and Religion: an International Academic Conference on the Religious Aspects of Metal, 7–8 September 2022, Masaryk University, Brno, Czech Republic 141